The Platform Is Read and Amended and Recess Follows Soon Afterward.

A UDITORIUM, Chicago, Iil. June 9

A dramatic development, occurred in the Progressive national convention today when senator William E. Borab, Republican, entered the convention, unannounced, and addressed to the Progressives a strong plea for harmony, at the same time frankly indicating his liking for Collitonseveit as a presidential candidate. The convention fairly went wild for a time, cheering Rooseveit and Borah repeatedly.

Republican leaders afterward said accurated by the realicals straining at the leaseb, the nomination of Colliconseveit was in almost immediate prospect today when the Progressive National Convention to the resolution adopted at Thursday's session, met in conference with the committee representing the national convention of Musicray Crame, Will. Borah, Nicholas Murray Butler and A. R. Johnson, Progressives Urge Roosevelt.

The conference was most friendly. Immediately pion assembling, your committee proposed as the joint nemitates of both conventions the name of any candidate, nor did it astempt to refute our arguments relating to unique availability of Theo. Roosevelt as a candidate for mite of the crucial period in the history of the world.

will Colonel Withdraw?

A report was circulated, to which the party managers gave ready ear, that Col. Boosavel intended to withdraw his name. There seemed to be no competent authority for the prediction, and radicals said they would "name Teddy CRATER NEAR FLAG Conference Report Rend.

Conference Report Read.

The written ruport of the peace conference was read to the delegates by chairman Geo. W. Perkins at the some hour the Republican conference committee was making its report at the collegaum. Both reports recommended time for further conferences "this afternoon or evening." Mr. Perkins also read the report of the Republican committee and the Seclaration that the Progressive members of the committee had triged Theo. Roosevelt as the most desirable candidate upon which to unite was wildly cheered and the report had to be read again.

Radicals Want Action.

For an hour the radicals had been restrained only by the statement of chairman Robins that the report of the conference committee was coming soon.

After listening to the two reports and Mr. Perkins's appeal to the convention to let the conference go back to work; the delegates applauded veoletorously the chairman's praise of the eloquence of the reference go back to work; the delegates applauded veoletorously the chairman's praise of the eloquence of the Progressive's universal candidate.

Johnson Ruther Pessimistic.

Gov. Johnson sounded a note of pessimism in the call for peace, by telling the Progressives not to place too much confidence in the expressions concerning Col. Rousevelt in the Republican report. His remarks valesced the fears of the radicals that there was little propect for an agreement between the two conventions, but his mame on the report guaranteed that the convention would permit its committee to proceed (Continued on page 5, Cel. 3.)
